TEPEE TALK WITH COACH BILL EDMONDSON

Backfield Coach Bill Edmondson began his football career at Meadowview High School earning his letter 3 years as a fullback and was Captain his senior year. He played football at Marshall College and Emory and Henry College earning his varsity letter for 3 years. Also earned letters in basketball and track. Coach Edmondson served in the Air Force as a meteorologist. In 1946 he coached backs at Virginia High in Bristol, in 1948 he was Head Coach at Fairfax. He has a Master's Degree from North Carolina University.

A WELCOME TO ANNANDALE

This week we welcome our new neighboring high school from Fairfax County, Annandale High School. The football squad from Annandale is coached by Mr. Larry Winkler, who last year taught here at Wakefield.

They operate from a tight "T" formation and in their first game last week they scored an impressive victory over St. Stephens 25-7. Annandale showed a very strong running game with their fullback (number 11 Proctor) leading the way. A former Wakefield Junior High student is also in the starting backfield of Annandale in the person of Jim Stuart number 20.

All reports tell us that Coach Winkler and his staff are doing a wonderful job at Annandale High and we welcome them this afternoon to Wakefield and to Northern Virginia football.

.....TEPEE TALK.....

This is Wakefield's third game...they've won 1 and lost 1... Annandale is wearing red and white today but these are not official school colors as yet...we have 11 varsity cheerleaders, chosen by 11 judges of which 7 were faculty members and 4 were students... 92 girls tried out...co-captains are Judy Adams and Dasha Mehan... last week Annandale's Bob Proctor (11) ran 40 yds and 45 yds for two TD's against St. Stephens... QB Joe Davies (10) and Ed Stuart (20) scored the other TD's for AHS...Wakefield's attendance so far is officially 1869 for both games....1220 paid their way in to see George Mason here...yesterday our Jr. High trimmed Swanson 12-0 with 309 paid admissions looking on....
